

Graduate Courses Scholarships at the University of Oxford for International Students

Graduate Scholarships for applicants of all nationality in University of Oxford, 2012 UK

Study Subject(s):All subjects

Course Level:Graduate

Scholarship Provider: Clarendon Fund

Scholarship can be taken at: UK

Eligibility:-All applicants for graduate study at the University of Oxford are eligible. Clarendon scholars come from all continents in the world: from the USA to Australia, Venezuela to Vietnam and from Norway to Nigeria!Candidates applying to start a new graduate course at Oxford are eligible.
-This includes students who are currently studying for a Master's degree at Oxford but who will be re-applying for a DPhil (you would be eligible for funding for the DPhil).
-Candidates who already have a place but who deferred entry from a previous year are not eligible to apply (as you can apply for Clarendon in the year that you applied for your place and then, if you are successful, you can apply to defer your funding if you need to defer your place).
-An excellent academic record is essential: A high first class honours degree or its equivalent (a GPA score of at least 3.7 if the mark is out of 4, noting that most successful candidates achieve a score higher than 3.7) or an outstanding academic record at Master's level is necessary (noting that an outstanding Master's degree can compensate for a moderate first degree performance)

Scholarship Open for International Students: Yes

Scholarship Description: Clarendon Scholarships are awarded on the basis of outstanding academic merit and potential to graduate students from all around the world. Scholarships are tenable in all subject areas and open to candidates who will be starting a new course.

How to Apply: Online
